INCREASED INTEREST

MAILS BRING MANY INQUIRIES TO G. A. R. COMMITTEE.

Delegations From Twenty State Already Provided With Headquarters-Progress Noted.

Every mail brings to headquarters of the citizens' executive committee on the 1902 encampment of the G. A. R. applications for quarters, either for individuals or for organizations. As the date of the encampment draws near these applications have increased in number until this morn ing's mail brought enough to occupy all the clerks at headquarters and in the office of the committee on public comfort. This is taken as a fair indication of the interest excited by the encampment in other parts of the country. More than half of all the hotel space available for use during the encampment has been reserved and the remainder is going rapidly. Most of the desirable boarding houses in the city have likewise been taken in advance. Headstates. The preparations for attending the encampment made by out-of-town delegations are thus as far advanced as those for the average inauguration a fortnight before March 4.

The most notable application received today came from Mr. W. C. Round of Manassas, Va. The writer has been appointed a committee of one to arrange for the attendance of the Veteran Signal Corps As sociation and asks the executive commithave to pay for a hall and luncheon and dinner served to the veteran signal men each day of the encampment. All members of the association who attend, says Mr. Round, will engage their own sleeping quarters. A meeting is to be held Tuesday evening at headquarters of the chairman and vice chairmen of all the several corps associations embraced in the Army of the Potomac during the encampment. The call is signed by Mr. A. Hart, chairman of the 11th Corps reunion committee. Application has been made by the G. A. R. Band of Ohio for an engagement with some large post during the encampment.

As has been already stated in The Star this organization holds a peculiar place in G. A.

R. circles and has been signally honored at many G. A. R. reunions. Commander J. H. Moore, chairman of the committee on information, and Dr. William Tindall, secretary to the board of District commissioners, are to confer Monday morning next on the location of the score or more of information booths to be set up during the encampment.

Second Day Parade.

Chairman Warner, Secretary Bulkley. Col. W. H. Michael, chairman of the committee on naval veterans, and Col. John L McElroy, chairman of the committee on reunions, have been considering for several days a projected second day's parade of militiamen, regular troops, ex-prisoners of war, naval veterans, Sons of Veterans, and other kindred organizations. The belief seems to be general that such a special pageant would add greatly to the general interest of the program, and it is deemed most probable that one will be organized. The matter will be definitely acted upon at the next meeting of the executive com-

Several conferences with Secretary Moody have assured Mr. Warner of the hearty co-operation of the Navy Department in all arrangements for the encampment in which that bureau can give assistance. Col. Michael of the State Department, who is chairman of the committee on the reunion of naval veterans, desires to have constructed a reproduction of the Kearsarge, or some equally famous American battle ship, but the executive committee feels unable to undertake so expensive a memorial. Accordingly, Mr. Moody has been asked to send to Washington several war vessels of such draught that they can enter the channel of the Eastern branch. These will be especially decorated for the encampment and will lie at the navy yard wharf for the inspection of visitors then in Buildings of Historic Interest. A first step has been taken toward the marking of buildings of historic interest now unmarked. Yesterday a letter was sent the surgeon general of the army askplaced in Judiciary Square during the war the dimensions of the structure, the number of patients received, the length of time the hospital was located there and other items of information along similar lines.

A meeting was held yesterday of the subcommittee on entertainment, and bids for river excursions, menus and street car rides to the country were opened and discussed. Gen. S. S. Burdette presided, and the attendance was good.

Mr. M. I. Weller, chairman of the committee on public comfort, is to leave the city tomorrow for a rest of ten days. During that time Charles F. Benjamin, vice chairman of the committee, will be in

Chairman Cuno H. Rudolph of the committee on decorations has written Mr. War-ner that he will return to Washington next week. His purpose is to execute the bonds required by the War and Navy Departments for the use of flags and bunting in decorating other public buildings. A meeting of his committee is to be held

CADET PENDLETON'S CASE. First Year Man Used Abusive Language to a "Plebe." The War Department has received the papers in the case of Qadet Alexander G. Pendleton, jr., who was tried by court-martial at West Point and found guilty of hazing. Pendleton was appointed from Arizona and is a first-class man. This is the first case of hazing that has occurred since the law passed, nearly a year and a half ago, intended to suppress the practice. The hazing took place while the cadets were in camp, and consisted of abusive language by Cadet Pendleton to a "plebe" while the latter was in his tent. There was no violence, nor did Pendleton lay hands on the plebe His defense was that he lost his temper and said more than he intended. He was sentenced to be dismissed. The case will go to the President for final review, and there is considerable speculation among those in-terested in the subject of hazing as to whether the extreme penalty will be en-forced in the case of Pendleton.

Quickly Dissipates Tired Feelings and Gives New Life to the Weak. Nervous and Debilitated.

Tired, languid and despondent feelings prevail to an alarming extent during the heated term of summer. Such feelings indicate depleted blood and a feeble condition of the nervous system. This is just the time when Paine's Celery Compound is needed to build up fiesh and muscle, brace the nerves and clear and strengthen the brain.

Sick headaches, nervous prostration, sleeplessness and a general feeling of mental and physical depression, by which life is made almost intolerable in the hot weather, can all be speedily banished by the use of a bettle or two of Palne's Celery Compound, nature's summer renovator and strength-giver.

Paine's Celery Compound never fails to repair the wasted and wornout tissues; it calms and perfeetly regulates nervous action and brings that sweet and restful sleep that makes life happy. The medicine that in the past has done such marvelous things for others is the kind you should use at this time.

This information came to the attention of the District board this afternoon in a commumeation from Mr. A. B. Duvall, corporation counsel, inclosing a letter from S. T. Thomas, attorney for Patrick Mann.

"Mr. Mann," says Mr. Duvall, "has concluded to discontinue his fertilizer works at Giesboro' Point, which have been the occasion of great and continuous public com-plaint. His attorney states that Mr. Mann has 'permanently discontinued taking dead animals to his fertilizer works on the river below Giesboro' Point, and intends in the near future to entirely abandon the manu-facture of fertilizers in the District of Columbia.' And as a consideration for this action he asks that the pending cases against him be discontinued.

"I would advise acceptance of this propo-sition," says Mr. Duvall, "as a desirable as well as expeditious termination of the prosecution of an obnoxious business, which for years has been complained of as a public The Commissioners will undoubtedly ac-

ROCKVILLE, Md., July 25, 1902. Mr. William Maloy of Columbus, Ohio, eassed through Rockville yesterday on his vay to Washington, where he will make a determined effort to have his name restored to the pension list, from which it was removed during President Cleveland's last administration. After having made unsuccessful attempts through Washington attorneys to secure the restoration of his pension, the old veteran decided to journey Washington and make a personal appeal to the commissioner of pensions. Converting into cash all his worldly goods, excepting a horse and wagon, Mr. Maloy, accompanied by his wife, set out June 1 for the nation's capital. When he left home he had sufficient money to de-fray the expenses of the trip, but while on the way three of his horses died, and the necessity of replacing them so reduced his slender funds that, in spite of rigid econe my, he was penniless when he reached Rockville. Learning the facts of the case a number of citizens of the town showed their appreciation of the sturdy old warrior's perse-verance by making him a generous contribution of money which enabled him to continue his journey in good spirits. He says that his claim is a just one, and seems cor fident that his efforts will be crowned with

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Montgomery County Agricultural Socie-ty, held here this morning, it was definitely decided to postpone the annual fair until October 7, 8, 9 and 10. The dates originally set were September 2, 3, 4 and 5, but it was found that the extensive improvements now being made to the fair grounds property at this place would not be completed by that time, and the postponement was deemed advisable. The commissioners for this county have received a numerously signed petition ask-ing for an appropriation for building a bridge over the Patuxent river, on the road from Long Corner to Damascus. The board of commissioners for Howard county has received a similar petition. The two boards will meet on the premises in the near future, and if it is decided to grant the quest the cost will be borne jointly by the two counties. Deputy Sheriff John A. Selby brought to Rockville this morning and lodged in jall Timothy Milburn, a seventeen-year-old boy, upon the charge of grand larceny. It seemed impossible for him to pick up the art and understand it. He suffered continually with stomach trouble and could not digest his food properly, and he finally

In a short time a very remarkable change took place. His stomach recovered and he became free from headaches. His hand was no longer nervous and
